P.C.

1. Heard the counsel for the parties. Perused the pleadings and documents on record.

2. As it is not in dispute that the defendants-applicants have already deposited the amount of Rs.2,50,000/- in this Court in terms of the order passed on the Summons for Judgement, coupled with the fact that the Advocate on record for the defendants expired sometime in 2000 before which the Written Statement was affirmed on 4.5.2000 and duly served on the other side as well as the earlier

Advocate on record gave an undertaking to the Court to remove office objections, in the interest of justice, therefore, taking totality of the circumstances into account, the Motion is made absolute in terms of prayer clause (a).
